

LGBT History Month is an opportunity for all of us to learn more about the histories of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people. In the past, LGBT people often remained hidden due to legislation. Even though we applaud the changing legal and social climate, many still live in fear of ostracism, prejudice, assault, victimisation, and even murder. Education and awareness can help change this.

History Month is an annual observance of LGBT history and the associated rights movements and legal during February to coincide with the 2005 abolition of Section 28, which until then prevented schools from promoting LGBT issues in education.

Writer, wit and poet sentenced to 2 years hard labour for homosexuality in 1895

Former spitfire pilot and Britain's first male-to-female trans to undergo gender surgery in 1951

Born 1912, father of the computer & WWII Enigma codebreaker, prosecuted for homosexuality in 1952, accepting chemical castration before committing suicide in 1954 milestones. It is observed during October in the USA, to include National Coming Out Day on October 11. In the UK, it is held
